

Do You Have A Bright Idea?

Enter the San Joaquin Entrepreneur Challenge

*inventors . entrepreneurs . geeks . gurus
students . programmers . mechanics . start-ups tinkerers . researchers . and many more!*

The San Joaquin Entrepreneur Challenge is open to persons with a unique business idea, start-up and early stage businesses. Pitch your million-dollar idea in this inaugural competition, sponsored by the San Joaquin Angels and the University of the Pacific. Have a chance to win a share of $10,000 in cash and $10,000 in professional services.

- ✓ Win $10,000 cash & $10,000 professional services
- ✓ Visit sjchallenge.com for full details
- ✓ Go online and get an application form
- ✓ Attend the Preparatory Workshop February 12th
- ✓ Contest entry form due February 19th

Free Preparatory Workshop

February 12, 2010

8:30 am - 12:00 noon

Alliance Free Enterprise Center

1020 Tenth Street Place

Suite 102 . Modesto

(in the 10th Street Plaza across from Jamba Juice)

Get Prepared Maximize Your Chances

Take advantage of this preparatory workshop, offered by the Alliance on February 12th. Maximize your chances for success in the San Joaquin Entrepreneur Challenge. Hear from a panel of experts about how you can prepare for the contest. Get an overview of the ground rules and event format. Ask questions and find out what the judges are looking for.

Make sure and bring a completed entry form application to the workshop. Experts will review your application and give you one-on-one feedback on your entry. Download the application form at the contest website, www.sjchallenge.com.

Sign Up Today. RSVP by February 10!

RSVP Required!

RSVP by February 10th for the preparatory workshop hosted by The Alliance. Call The Alliance @

567.4636